IMPROVEMENTS NEEDED, SAYS SUPERINTENDENT

That some changes are necessary and that more help is needed, was the statement of Superintendent Hough of the County Hospital yesterday in conversation with Councilman J. B. Ogborn.

The hospital averages over 50 patients per month. Investigations have already been made by grand jurors, who declare that the hospital is in first class condition with the exception of the wards in which ungovernable patients are placed. Hough made particular mention of these needed improvements in his conversation with Ogborn.

Several grand jurors who have interested themselves in the hospital question lay stress on their appreciation of the work of the superintendent. Hough, declared one juror, is overworked and underpaid.

It is hoped that the needed improvements and attendants will result from the promised investigation of the Grand Jury.

There is approximately $4,000,000 assessable property in the district.

Charles Gneeco, 328 Russ building, San Francisco, left a map with the city council showing a number of lots in Stege which he is anxious to sell to the city for a sit for the fire hall.

UNIONISTS TO TEACH CONVICTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—With the approval of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, representatives of labor organizations have volunteered to send instructors to Sing Sing prison to teach the prisoners modern methods of manufacturing. The move is in part the outcome of a visit which Gompers and several other labor leaders paid to the prison yesterday.

A beginning in training the prisoners will be made in the garment and shoe shops where skilled workmen of the United Garment Workers and International Boot and Shoemakes' unions will give the first lessons.

ONLY ONE KICK ONASSESSMENT

Yesterday morning the city council, with William Lane as chairman and City Clerk A. C. Faris as secretary, organized as a board of equalization. He was notified to appear before the board.

GERMAN SHIP IS SUNK BY BRITISH

Move on Warsaw Continuese; Little Known of Latest Move in Huge Campaign.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 2 (via London, Aug. 3).—An official communication issued here tonight shows that a British submarine has sunk a large German transport in the Baltic sea.

While the Austro-Germans continue to tighten the wings of their great eastern battle front with success at both extremities, including the occupation of Mitau in the north and further progress byosd Cholm in southeast Poland, the situation before Warsaw prope remains unchanged.

Few additional details have reached London concerning the plans for the abandonment of the city, but apparently the time has not arrived for the Russians to relinquish their precarious hold on the capital.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The puzzle of Warsaw today continued to be the one great topic among British military observers, although hourly the opinion grew stronger that the Russians' retreat would leave the Kaiser only a barren victory when his legions enter the Polish capital, the Slavs escaping from the vast trap.

From Berlin there came late today official claims of an advance on the Narew near Lomza, and of the capture of Mitau, capital of Courtland.

It is admitted in Berlin, nevertheless, that the situation before Warsaw is unchanged.

REPORT BUELOW HALTED.

While the Teutons are now in Cholm, official advices from the Russian capital today indicated that the Grand Duke Nicholas, his lines still unbroken vitally, was withdrawing his forces from the tongue of which Warsaw is the tip, that his armies were not only holding back Von Hindenburg along the Narew, but the cavalry dash of Von Buelow towards the Vilna line of communications was stopped and that a detachment was still putting up a vigorous resistance to the west of Warsaw itself.

RICHMOND DAY WORKERS TO MEET

Another meeting of all of the committees for Richmond Day will be held in the Auditorium of the Lincoln school tonight. All of the members of the committee are requested by the council to be present, as a report is wanted on the work done by the various committees.

A. O. Clark, the Exposition Commissioner, will be present and will tell of the plans he has made for Richmond day. Traffic Manager Brown of the S. F. & O. T. railways will be present to work out the transportation problem.

The finance committee hopes to raise over $700, as it is estimated that it will require that amount to enable them to pay the transportation and admission of the school children.

Thursday night has been set as the date for the whist party, the receipts of which will be used to defray the expenses of the day. The Richmond Club home has been thrown open for the occasion, and arrangements are being made for the big occasion.

TAGS NET NEAT SUM FOR AUG. 7

Active Club Women and Girls See That Few Escaped Being "It."

Did you get tagged?

Nearly everyone did yesterday. Club women and high school girls did the tagging and after the day's work was done, the substantial sum of $110 proved the total of the day's proceeds. The money will go towards making Richmond's birthday party at the Exposition a success.

Chief Deputy District Attorney A. S. Ormsby from $150 to $200 per month.

Deputy District Attorney Wilbur S. Pierce, additional $25 per month.

Sheriff R. R. Veale, one more deputy. He will be H. L. Brady of Martinez, and will get $100 per month.

Miss May Kelly, stenographer in county clerk's office, additional $15.

Miss Irene Costello of Stege, Stenographer in the district attorney's office, $15 per month increase.

Miss Elwyne Taggart, deputy in Assessor G. O. Meese's office, increase of $15 per month.

County Recorder M. H. Hurley has fees taken away and is allowed flat salary of $3250 per year, also allowed three copyists at $60 per month each.

Tax Collector Martin Joost $200 per year for extra help.

Miss Josie M'Cann, stenographer to sheriff, $25 per month additional.

All of these salaries iwll be allowed at the end of the coming month. Each of those given the increase will get two-thirds of the amount allowed, but after August will get the full allowance.

* * *

Nineteen signatures were attached to the protest petition of residents on Twenty-ninth street, who desire to have the improving of their street laid over until next spring. Sewer work in the district has torn up the streets, making the base for the street very soft, until the soil has again settled.

Councilman Lane introduced the subject, proposing that the Oakland firms be placed under a much larger license than the local firms.

AMERICAN CLOWNS.

In the last issue of Organized Labor, official journal of the Building Trades Council, Olaf Tveitmoe says what he thinks of Billy Sunday. He says it explosively:

Every circus has its clowns.

Our ten months' show is keeping up the tradition.

Amusement is what the people want.

Young and old—optimists and pessimists of all nationalities and races freely pay the price for passing pleasure.

A world filled with millions of good people and much misery needs opiates, narcotics or some kind of laughing gas to kill its piercing pain.

Buffoons and clowns are quite innocent varieties of mirth producers. Provided they don't take themselves too seriously, they are really good companions. America has some prominent natural products—almost national character; Barnum, "Billy" Sunday and ex-President of the United States, Rex Roosevelt, "Teddy of Timbuctoo." They mastered Ego's Art of Advertising because they knew that "the public wanted to be humbugged." Barnum in his day admitted it boastfully; "Billy" furnishes fanatical narcotics labeled "Religion" to modern slaves for the benefit of their exploiters at the rate of a $50,000 retainer and fees according to the corporate capacity of the stricken community. "Billy" is furiously in earnest; he hammers the ear drums and rattles the nerves of his hungry hearers and weary wobblers into a state of frenzied hysteria, takes the cash and the "gifts" and travels with an escort of boxing mates, trainers and "rubber-downs," and maids and managers and secretries and valets, that would make a dark pugilistic world-champion or a dusky Oriental potentate blush with envy and shame. But it is all business with "Billy," although some supposedly sane people say he is a "fake." And the employers and exploiters foster and patronize him because his raving helps "Big Business."

Discontented workers of every age have always been numbed and paralyzed by inflamed patriotic and proselytic passions.

DISCONTINUING AN OLD PRACTICE.

An old custom has been discontinued. A certain little knot of men that once gathered at a certain door in Oakland waits expectantly no longer.

The death news is no longer eagerly awaited by those men. For the death news once meant shoes, clothing, free. It means that no more.

For Oakland has discontinued the practice of giving away the clothes taken from the poor bodies of the nameless dead that are brought to the morgue.

The certain door is the door of the morgue and the men are the homeless, jobless men who waited long hours for the chance of getting a bit of clothing stripped from the dead.

Few of us knew that the "bread line" formed outside the morgue to be given clothing. We didn't know that the line was getting longer. But it was. And that is the reason the practice was discontinued.

It is a gruesome commentary on the Scheme of Things. Of course, we know that men are ragged and hungry in our cities. But the poor we always have with us, and few of us worry about it.

It takes such a thing as the line that formed outside the morgue to hammer the hideous fact home.

RICHMOND HAS GREAT FUTURE

J. P. BURKE,
Who says that Richmond will be the Detroit of the West.

"No matter where you go," stated Burke yesterday, "you hear of Richmond. While a great many local pessimists are kicking about the sale of real estate today, they forget that there is not a town in the United States that is not suffering from even a greater setback than Richmond is today.

"There is not a town on the Pacific Coast that can boast of the pay rolls you have here. All the local people have to do is to have a grand funeral and bury the knocker. Of all the towns I have visited in the last year, I have got better results here than anywhere else.

"The merchants today in Richmond can do business at a smaller cost than any other town upon this coast, as I have thoroughly demonstrated in my closing out of the Winfree stock. To give you an idea, there is not a merchant in San Francisco or Oakland that has not an advertising expense of at least 7 per cent. While in Richmond it can be done by using good judgmetn at a fraction over 1 per cent. And I believe before I finish up with this stock, which I hope to do in a few days, the advertising of the Winfree close out will go under 1 per cent. For final announcements watch tomorrow morning's News."

WHIST PARTY AT ST. MARK'S

A whist party will be given by the Ladies of St. Mark's church tomorrow afternoon in the assembly room of the church.

Particularly desirable prizes will be given to the winners. Refreshments will be served. The public is cordially invited.

Score cards will cost 10 cents.

AUTO MARKETS BIG SUCCESS

So successful has the system of automobile free markets become that the No Commission Auto Market, Twentieth and Broadway, Oakland, the leading "used-car" exchange of Oakland, has inaugurated a system of displaying and selling used cars that approaches the acme of perfection.

The company has sold 151 cars for its clients since May 10. They receive no commission for these sales, merely charging $2.50 per week for the time they are displayed at the big open air market. A skilled crew of salesmen are employed who furnish prospects and help the owners close sales. There is also a night sales service and also washers and brass polishers who keep the cars polished up.

Hasimura Togo Takes Back Seat

Hashimuro Togo, the Japanese character made famous by Wallace Irwin, is excelled in the reckless use of English by George H. Uyeda, Japanese cook, who recently wrote the following letter to J. A. Raffetto, proprietor of the Ivy House, Plarerville, and brother-in-law of Councilman J. B. Ogborn. Do you know what George meant to say?

"To the Proprietor
Ivey House,
Placer Vill Cal
Dear Sir

How do you do I am very well thise is excuse me Sir the to ask for you. then I heard somebody you was owner. So to do asking for you. What done Carey House at present and which you could Spoke to Rented then Who Held any person engaged in Business forlease contracted at present time. because I been Wrought for Mr. Bence last time so I wish be Returned work again. So will You please try to ask for manager. The Mr. bence How was for Which advanced let me know together. Very Kindle Your to me

Yours respectfully,
GEO. H. UYEDA,
Care Geo. C. Meekfessel Berlin, Cal.

Uyeda wanted a job. He tried to explain that Bence, who leases the Carey House from Raffetto, was once his employer and would give him good references. Also that he would like to know when he could start work, that he was at present employed in a small country hotel, but was dissatisfied, that he was concerned about the health of Mr. Bence and would like to known about the job and the welfare of Bence in the same letter.

Ogborn considers it a gem of "English as she is spoke" by the real Hashimura Togos of California.

Black and Yellow on Pantages Bill

Everything's black and yellow at the Pantages this week. Eddie Ross, in blackface, is the laughing hit. Miss Juen Tai, fair Chinese singer, and hailed by artists as the most beautiful woman of her race, is the artistic hit. There are ohter acts that are as great as hits; many of them—but these two stand out distinctly as being ultra-novel—if such a thing is possible. Who misses either of them misses something that the whole bay region's talking about.

Herbert Bashford's strikingly clever sketch, "The Stranger," with a punch in it that is really new new in vaudeville sketches is the vehicle in which those old favorites, Charles King and Virginia Thornton, return to the Oakland Pantages.

Phil La Toska sings, talks—and juggles. Stella Maye and Margie Addis appear in an act that bills them as "Daughters of the Regiment of Fun."

Herbert Dane and his "Six Adorables" offer a dancing act that is far from the ordinary.

RICHMOND LOSES TO MARTINEZ COLTS 2-1

Jack Killilay, Umpire Bleary O'Leary, Babe Danzig and Cutey Cunningham won the game for Martinez Sunday.

But it was a good game, and it means that another game between the two rivals will be played, probably on the local lot, early in September.

It is but another chapter to the old story that Richmond NEVER has won a game away from home. Think it over. Isn't it true? Of course, we confine our radius of NEVER to modern history.

Jack Killilay was right. Little more need be said. Schinkel pitched a good game, considering his inexperience. Jack allowed the local to garner but five hits, though some were worthy of Sam Crawford.

Whether Schinkel allowed six or seven hits is a matter of debate, the point under question being whether Jacob's tap to Conger in the first and which was fielded to third rather than to first, should be scored as a hit. We opine no.

The County Seaters got to "Oots" in the first before he got settled. Richmond retired uneventfully, Christensen walking and Cunningham fanning. For Martinez, Culver walked, Sweeey hit, Jacobs tapped to Conger and Danzig hit, scoring Culver.

In the first of the third with two down, Daniels hit to center for three bags. The ball rolled under the rustic fence and the local fans went wild. Conger flew out to center.

An error by Benn on a hard chance let Sweeney get on. Jacobs walked. Being caught off second, Sweeney sped toward third, and on a wild throw past Benn, he rounded third and made home for their second and last run.

In the first of the eighth Richmond made another run and had a chance of tieing the score. Schinkel flew to right for the first out. Daniels walked. Conger flew out to right. Christensen hit high up on the hill in left field, scoring Daniels and landing himself on second. Then Cunningham hit a fast rap to right field, which though handled fast by Biff Culver, he could easily have beat out to first had he not turned around to see the expected play at the plate. Good night.

The score for the game is as follows:

MORGAN ACCEPTS DEFI; TO MEET PETER BUZUKOS

At last the goodly bill of a wrestling match between Peter Buzukos, who is for a few weeks sojourning in Richmond, and Jim Morgan of Oakland, who claims to have one time thrown the Greek champion, has been arranged. No more momentous announcement has been arranged. No more momentous announcement has ever been made to the wrestling fans of Richmond, for such a match would be a headliner in any San Francisco or Oakland club.

The match, which will be preceded by a bunch of whirlwind preliminaries, is to be at Kerby Floyd's Arena on Tuesday night, August 10, and will be for a side bet of $100, which purse is enough to make'm hump.

!Sport Spats!

The Martinez baseball field is a fine setting for a picnic. Sheer from left field rises a sandstone hill, on which half way up clings a road cut into the stone formation. Above the road a dense forest of eucalyptii covers the hillside.

Behind the realty sign in center field a small valley stretches upward to the confines of a hilltop almond orchard, in the center of which is located a small farm house.

Right field is bordered by a number of fruit trees, above that a few hundred feet of barren hill side, the top of which is finally capped by a sparse forest of live oak trees.

The infield is dusty, and home plate is crowded too near to the old but commodious grandstand. Behind the grandstand is a wilderness, which is the nemesis of many a "dollar and a quarter" ball.

* * *

Bill Culver, McNamara's unannounced guardian in right field, was a demon of a fielder, handling numerous chances without a bobble.

He is from Vallejo, and two years ago was with the Seals.

* * *

Joe McNamara is another. He didn't have McAvoy, Goldie, Raby, Speed Martin or any other of the stars he was bragging about. We're not kicking, though. Killilay was enough.

* * *

Daniels was much worried throughout the game. He was told that if any batted ball hit the real estate sign in center field, the batter would be given a lot.

The thought of owning a lot in Martinez made him nervous, as the agent might want him to live there.

* * *

Whenever Richmond had a chance of scoring, O'Leary saw it and acted accordingly.

* * *

McNamara is worse off than Luce for having a field which is so situated that he cannot collect from all the spectators.

At that the shaded hillside is better than the grandstand.

* * *

Devereaux as a pinch hitter ought to be pinched.

* * *

Two of Richmond's leading batters, Cunningham and Benn, failed to connect safely.

* * *

With three hits, Babe Danzig was the most valuable man of the day. He has "Oots" number, evidently.

* * *

Jeff Woods got away with the indicator stuff better than ever before.

Jeff, however, says that he is not strong for the tenth man act, that he was "pulled" into it, that he does not care to go up into the leagues, and that he is going to yet out of it as soon as he can.

* * *

WITH THE largest attendance yet registered on an opening day, the Richmond public schools yesterday opened for the fall term. There are 56 teachers employed.

The bad crack from Schinkle's pitched ball, received on the ankle by Cliff Cleek in the fifth inning, proved so serious that Cliff spent the day yesterday limping about his home.

* * *

One hundred and ninety fans made the trip from Richmond to Martinez on the special train and about fifty more made the trip in machines.
